

8:30 to 9:00 – Registration

9:00 to 10:15 – Sessions One, Two, and Three

Session One: Women, Work, and War

Anita Morgan, Indiana University – Purdue University, Indianapolis (IUPUI)	“Blushing Young Virgins and Elderly Matrons:” Women Workers at the Indiana State Arsenal
Nancy N. Conner, Indiana Humanities	The Impact of World War II: Mexican American and Japanese American Women at Work in Indiana
Ruth L. Fairbanks, Indiana State University	Expecting Trouble: War Production, Physicians and the Pregnant Worker

Session Two: Women Reformers and Work

Lora Schmalfeldt, Indiana Department of Corrections	For the Good of Many vs. the Good of One: How Sarah Keely and Claire Walker of the Indiana Industrial School for Girls and Woman’s Prison Differed in Their Views and Uses of Their Paid Positions
Amanda Koch, Diplomatic History	Woman with a Mission: The Superintendent’s Wife at an Indianapolis Rescue Mission
Katherine Badertscher, Indiana University	Evaline Holliday and the Work of Community Service

Session Three: Women Working for Social Justice

Eunice Trotter, Mary Bateman Clark Enterprises	Mary Bateman Clark: A Woman of Colour and Courage
Khalilah A. Shabazz, Delia Harris, Remitha Norman, IUPUI	Seven Pearls in Action: Reflections on Sigma Gamma Rho Sorority, Incorporated and its contributions to Indiana’s Youth and Women

10:30 to 11:45 – Sessions Four, Five, and Six

Session Four: Changing Attitudes on Women and Work

M. Teresa Baer, Indiana Historical Society	Susan Wallace
Laura Merrifield Albright, University of Indianapolis	Women in Indiana State Government: Reflecting on 200 Years of Achievements
Virginia F. Pleasant, Purdue University	Women’s Contributions to Household Economy, Agriculture, and Education through Home Demonstration Clubs and Cooperative Extension Work

Session Five: Business Women at Work

Wendy Gamber, Indiana University	Indianapolis’s Female Economy: The Work History of The Notorious Mrs. Clem
Jyoti Verderame, IUPUI	Flora Krauch: How a Progressive Era Working Woman Became Known as Mother to the Nation’s First Complete Children’s Wear Department

Session Six: Discrimination and Compensation for Women’s Work

Norma B. Erickson, IUPUI	Unparalleled Helpfulness and Loyalty: An Introduction to the Early Training of African-American Nurses in Indianapolis, 1909-1921
Vivian Deno, Butler University	Laurel C. Thayer, Self-Supporting Women, and the Struggle for Waged Equality in Early Twentieth Century Indiana

12:00 to 1:30 – Lunch with Keynote Speaker,

Nancy Gabin, Department of History, Purdue University

“Bossy Ladies: Toward a History of Wage-Earning Women in Indiana”

1:30 to 2:45 – Sessions Seven, Eight, and Nine

Session Seven: Women, Crime, and Reformation

Kelsey Kauffman, Michelle Jones, Anastazia Schmid, Kim Baldwin, Leslie Hauk, Lara Campbell, Nan Lockhart, Indiana Women’s Prison	Women, Crime, and Reformation in Postbellum Indiana
---	---

Session Eight: Changing Nature of Miami Women’s Work

Dani Tippman, Whitley County Historical Museum	Takumwah, Leader through the Generations
Ashley Glassburn Falzetti, Eastern Michigan University	The Impact of Land Cession Treaties on Miami Women’s Labor and Practices of Survivance

Session Nine: College Women at Work

Noraleen A. Young, Past to Present	Help the Girls Win Out”: Kappa Alpha Theta Fraternity and college women in Indiana prior to 1920
Karen Wood, Green3, LLC	Leading Hoosier Women in Wartime: How Kate Hevner Mueller Prepared Collegiate Coeds for World War II

3:00 to 4:00 – Plenary Session

“What Future for Indiana Women’s History?”

Jen Guiliano, IUPUI

Modupe Labode, IUPUI

Jeannie Regan-Dinius, Department of Historic Preservation & Archaeology, DNR